

This is the Easter message, that awakening is possible, to the goodness of God, the sacredness of human life, the sisterhood and brotherhood of all.

~ Anne Lamott

PROGRAM NOTES

We welcome to the free pulpit this morning Beth Ferree who is currently serving as President at the UU Church of Oak Cliff in Dallas. She is also a certified life coach and bereavement counselor who combines tarot, mediumship, and counseling to help others reach beyond their trauma and grief to discover their power.

The stewardship campaign, hopefully concluding this evening. If you anticipate supporting the church in the upcoming budget year, it will be most helpful if you would pledge online via the church app, our website or using a paper pledge form on the counter in the lobby. We currently are shy of our required goal (in order to balance the next fiscal year's budget) by $8,430. For those who have pledged, thank you. For those who will, we thank you as well. For those who might, Dick, Jim or Marilyn are more than happy to chat with you about how we pay our bills.

All members were sent a quick, anonymous 4 question survey last Tuesday morning from the Board. The subject: Attn: All Members: Please take this 4-question survey. Over half the membership had not replied. Please, if that's include you – please search by subject on your inbox and complete the questions.

MAKING THINGS HAPPEN TODAY

- ◆ Board Rep: Dick Powell
- ◆ Greeting us at the door: Amy Hoffman-Shehan
- ◆ Host: David Dyer
- ◆ Leading today: The Rev. Dr. Mark Y.A. Davies
- ◆ AV Crew: Carole Harner, Don Rogers, Jim Holmes, Marla Loturco
- ◆ Sunday School Leader: Ellie Dyer

WELCOME GUESTS

We are Unitarian Universalists. We are brave, curious, and compassionate thinkers and doers. We are people from many backgrounds who have different beliefs, but shared values.

Grounded in more than two hundred years of thoughtful, spiritual communities, we are people of many generations, ethnicities, genders and sexualities, and spiritual backgrounds. People engaged in making the world a better place. People focusing on what really matters – love, justice, integrity, and hope.

We are a lay-led congregation. Lay-led congregations have no minister which means members of the congregation manage the various aspects of our church life. Unitarian Universalism has a proud tradition of lay-led churches.

We Unitarian Universalists have different beliefs, but shared values. We are Unitarian Universalists, and at the same time we may also be agnostic, Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, humanist, Jewish, Muslim, pagan, atheist, believers in God, and those who just let the great mystery be. The diversity of beliefs you'll find in our church community is one of our strengths – we're always learning how to see the world from a different perspective.

This is who we are. We are glad you joined us today.

The Importance of Diversity for Human and Ecological Communities

The Rev. Dr. Mark Y.A. Davies, leading
The most sustainable and resilient ecological communities are those with greater biodiversity. What lessons might we learn from nature about the significance of diversity for the well-being of our human communities?
